

It is completely inappropriate and a total disservice to the public trust that companies such as Sinclair be allowed to own and operate as many broadcast outlets as they currently do. The use of such media monopolies to promote a single-view political agenda is a threat to our democracy and must be reversed immediately.